Since 1991, we have been building trust...one home at a time in the Greater Norman, OK area. We're known as your personal builder because we listen carefully to your needs and lifestyle. Then, we work with you to make your house that comfortable and practical place that gives you the special feeling that you affectionately call home. Our hands-on approach as a family owned and operated business allow us to carefully control quality and costs. Our pride shows in every detail.

Tradition of Excellence

We have fun building! Many of our homeowners have spread the word. Our company makes sure that the building of your home is exciting without stress. You'll like the experience.

Norman is a special place for us. We work and live here, too, and wouldn't trade Norman for any other place. The people, the culture, lifestyle and the community mean everything to us. It's the place we call home, too!

David is so good at keeping the lines of communication open and responding in a timely manner. He is so easy to deal with and will go above and beyond to please his customer. "We never thought building our new home in Norman would be so uncomplicated and straightforward. As a result, recommending Armstrong Homes is very easy to do. Working with Dave, we found that he listened to our wants and needs and kept us informed on each step during the building process. More importantly, he helped us to keep our construction costs within budget, with no increased cost surprises. Even after our home was completed, Dave has continued to stay in contact with us to insure that we remain satisfied customers. Again, we highly recommend Armstrong Homes and have done so to several of our friends."

"Dave Armstrong has gone above and beyond, beginning with the day we texted him about a house under construction, and he came right over and gave us a tour. Dave allowed us to rent until our former home was sold. We were able to come to an arrangement to have a storm shelter put in while we were renting. New home repairs have been addressed to our satisfaction in a timely manner. Dave has always been easily accessible, professional, trustworthy, kind, fair, and easy to work with. We thoroughly enjoy our new home!"
